

Marwell Zoo

Family Fun Day – 24th June 2017

Response to this event has been magnificent and at 09.00hrs on Friday 31st March only 178 tickets remain. It is expected that at some point over this week-end the automatic cut-off at 2,500 will operate.

If you are one of those who will then be having difficulty making a booking it is because the event is sold out. If you are the last to book and you cannot get all the places you want the booking system will know who you are and those final places, and those only, will be dealt with next week.

What a wonderful day this will be.
